WORLD PORK EXPO BY THE NUMBERS

World Pork Expo (WPX) is the world's largest pork-specific trade show, offering innovation, education and networking for everyone. Here's what the numbers tell us to expect at the 2022 World Pork Expo.

OVERVIEW

- World Pork Expo spans 3 days — June 8-10, 2022 — at the Iowa State Fairgrounds in Des Moines, Iowa, and is brought to you by the National Pork Producers Council.
- The commitment and support of 11 Gold Sponsors and 24 Silver Sponsors plays an essential role in making WPX possible.
- The National Pork Producers Council will celebrate the 35th anniversary of World Pork Expo in 2023.
- 400 companies from North America and around the world will be on-site, displaying products and services at booths, outdoor exhibits and hospitality tents at the 2022 WPX.
- More than 10,000 pork producers and ag professionals from throughout the world attend WPX each year.
- The exhibit space, which presents the latest pork production products, services and technologies, is expected to exceed 300,000 square feet in 2022.

FREE WITH ADMISSION

- Attendees can participate in 5 business seminars Wednesday, June 8, and Thursday, June 9, in the Varied Industries Building on the Iowa State Fairgrounds.
- There are 5 PORK Academy seminars that will take place throughout Wednesday, June 8 and Thursday, June 9. Pork producers and their employees can learn about nutrition management, understanding consumers, data collection and much more.
- 10,000 mouthwatering pork lunches will be served at the Big Grill located south of the Varied Industries Building.
- Shop the nearly 700 booths that make up the world's largest pork-specific trade show — open 23 hours over the course of three days.
- Visit the 50+ hospitality tents placed throughout the fairgrounds — along Grand Avenue and Ruan Plaza. Expo attendees can drop in and visit with company representatives to learn about the latest innovations and developments.
